In hindsight, I feel that perhaps physical therapy should occur after the muscle tissues and alignment issues have been dealt with. Earlier this month, the government had exempted foreign institutional and portfolio investors from payment of MAT on the capital gains made by them before April 1, 2015. And in order to say something is wrong, you need to have an argument. And some of these bills are really laughable since these legislators are really supposed to be anti-big-government.